

Lately, I've been late. Pulled in by the waves

Lately, I'm not here. Watch things disappear

I've been staying in, losing my forbearance

Casting; reeling in. Sleepless by the wind

How will I resist?

I'm going out

We're going out

Rain's coming in

It's a new day for us

It's a new day for all of us

Felt it going far. Pulled back by the dark

All things disappear. Lately, I'm not here

I'm going out

We're going out

Rain's coming in

It's a new day for us

It's a new day for all of us

Lately, I've been late. Pulled back by waves

Lately, I'm not here. Watch things disappear.
